Ephesians 1:10-14 - Salvation Security in the Trinity

Intro – Today we are a finishing up what might be the longest sentence in the Bible – (1:3-14). It is a big sentence dealing with big topics: God...the Trinity... Plans from eternity & for eternity The purpose of creation in demonstration of grace & redemption. The Trinity is in unity about eternal security. Security is a sought-after commodity. We want job security. There are security guards to help ensure security. We seek home security & national security and wonder about social security. But what about eternal security? Is this even possible? Can we provide our own security, or must eternal security be outsourced to others? Our text today reminds us that there is security in The Trinity. God's salvation is a strand of Three that cannot be broken. It is woven tightly together in the will of the Triune God and it is as certain as the life of the Living God. Each Person of the Godhead guarantees salvation and carries out a unique work/role that firmly establishes every aspect of the redemption of sinners. As fallen humans we often feel threatened by uncertainty and insecurity...but there is security in the Trinity...eternal security

THE COUNSEL / COUNCIL
